

LONG FLAT

Cabernet Merlot

| 2004 |

We usually like the bolder tastes of Chilean Merlots or Australian Shiraz. That's an honest statement of style preference, and it reflects the popularity of big New World reds.

This popular Australian red delivers upfront dark fruit -- plum, cherry, dark berries -- with some minty-spiciness. It's medium bodied with a mouth-filling texture and pairs well with burgers and red meat dishes. Alcohol 14 per cent.
