Adelaide Hills

2006

SAUVIGNON BLANC

This range first appeared under the Long Flat Wine Company label and has been rebadged. It offers regional varietals at surprisingly attractive prices. Of the current releases I've been particularly impressed by the Barossa Shiraz and this Adelaide Hills Sauvignon.

The latter is fragrant, showing intense and pure, cool green-skin fruit flavours with hints of gooseberries, finesse and elegance before some zesty racy acidity to finish.

Bloody Good (A delicious example of the style that overdelivers on quality and offers great value.)
