

LONG FLAT

PINK MOSCATO

2009

Long Flats' Pink Moscato is amongst the best-value you'll find in wines with a little fizz to them – plus it's only around half the normal alcohol level of most "fizzies." Italian Moscato wines are made from Muscat of Alexandria fruit that we know as Gordo Blanco, and this Long Flat Pink Moscato from the Murray Darling has lovely apple and musk flavours with a touch of raspberry from a small blend of Shiraz; an excellent value inclusion at that next party – or enjoy it at lunch with easy chilli and lime prawns on the barbecue.
