Margaret River Rosé 2009

Pretty and pink. Inviting aromas of pot-pourri and pear, fragrant redcurrants and raspberry coulis draw you in to the pink charms.

The palate reveals a lush and creamy texture with red berried flavours, eastern spices - cardamom and cinnamon - and a long finish.

Pink is perfect says Becky. Perfect for picnics, parties or pleasant afternoons on the porch. Check out the vibrant colour. Enjoy the fragrant aromas of cherry, spring blossom and spice.

The fruit comes from southern Margaret River vineyards and shows just how delicate and delightful our Rose styles can be.

Chill it and sip it - with antipasto, salads or spicy Asian.

The West Australian winemaker Brad Wehr is one of the most savvy operators in the industry. Wehr, who learned his trade at the high profile Leeuwin Estate and Xanadu wineries, made this sassy rose from cabernet. It's bright and breezy with red berry fruit flavours, a touch of spice, nice acidity and a crisp, dry finish. Drink it with Asian cuisine.
